ETU European Triathlon Championships, Eilat Friday 20th & Saturday 21st April 2012

The 2012 ETU European Triathlon Championships will take place in the Red Sea resort of Eilat, in Israel, between the 17th & 22nd April 2012. Eilat is a beautiful sunshine resort on the shores of the Red Sea, with a vibrant promenade area full of cafes, restaurants, bars and shops only a few metres from the wonderful beach and crystal clear sea.

Nirvana Europe are delighted to be working alongside the ETU and the event organisation, to provide travel and accommodation packages for athletes and spectators travelling to the event.

We will also be offering add-on sight seeing tours to some of the incredible locations Israel has to offer! Following our Inspection Visit in the Spring, we have earmarked the hotels we will be using, all a very short walk from the event site on the shores of the Red Sea.

Air travel, however, is the key to a relaxed enjoyment of this event. Conventional air travel from the UK to Eilat would involve a change in Tel Aviv, where baggage, including bikes, would need to be reclaimed at the International Terminal and re-checked in at the Domestic Terminal, a 5minute drive away.

As always, Nirvana Europe are the official agent for the European Triathlon Union and Triathlon Ireland, and we are proud to offer the following accommodation options, which are all within close proximity of the event site and remember, every client booking accommodation through Nirvana Europe will have:

- Secure bike storage or bike permitted in room.
- Early Breakfast on race day (If required).
- Direct access to Nirvana Europe's experienced event staff to assist you throughout your stay.
- Peace of mind that having the support of experienced operators around you brings.
